D. PRICE'S CREAM
BAKING POWDER
MOST PERFECT MADE.

From the Professor of Chemistry, California College of Pharmacy.

SAN FRANCISCO, JANUARY 14, 1890.
I have made a careful analysis of a sample of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder purchased by me in open market. The results of my analysis show that the Cream of Tartar used in its manufacture is pure, and that it does not contain any foreign substances, such as Alum, Ammonia, Lime or other impurities. Consider it to be pure and wholesome, and in every way a superior article.

MARGARET SANFORD.

The Lucky Prospector of the Black Hills.

The belle of Deadwood, South Dakota, is a young and dashing girl who turned her nineteenth year recently. Her name is Margaret Sanford, and she is an orphan. Who her mother was no one seems to know. Her father entered a mining camp about twelve years ago, foot-sore, ragged and almost starved, having walked across the prairies from Nevada. The miners gave him food and clothing and began to constitute themselves little Margaret's body-guard.

One night the old man was found dead before his door, which the drifting snow had fastened so he could not enter. The child was asleep inside. After the funeral she became a sort of wanderer, going and coming at will, and making many valuable discoveries of ore. She learned to use the rifle and revolver, and became one of the crack shots of the camp. With two exceptions she was never molested, and there was a funeral after each of these attacks.

A year ago she struck an ore bed richer than most of those in that vicinity, and again led the miners to the spot. This time they made voluntary contract to give her one-fourth of the yield. They kept their word, and she is now a rich woman. She is tall, slender and good looking, and wears long golden hair streaming down her back. On horseback she is a perfect backwoods picture, with her short skirt, buckskin leggings, brown shoes and wide-brimmed hat.

HUMBOLDT NEWS.

Stock Shipment—Sheep Dying—La

Grapple and Snow.
The Silver State of the 13th inst. says: Peter French shipped yesterday to San Francisco, 20 car loads of fat cattle. These cattle were driven here from French's ranch in Harney county, Oregon.

It is reported that George Watt, whose sheep range to Rees river Valley south of Battle Mountain, lost 100 head from one of his flocks one of the cold nights last week. It is said too that L. L. Richards lost a good many sheep up on King's river during the cold spell.

La grippe or some kindred disease, has prostrated nearly one-third of the people of Humboldt. There is scarcely a family in which one or more are not sick. Sneezing is the order of the day and night too. Three of the Silver State forces have been confined to the houses within a week with influenza.

The precipitation yesterday according to the signal office gauge amounted to 1.4 inches of water, the snow fall, according to the gauge being about 15 inches. That is a little more than any body cares to see fall in a day, and those who have been hoping and praying for a heavy snow fall, ought to be more than satisfied.

SALT MOUNTAINS

In the South-Eastern Part of Nevada.

The salt mountains located on the banks of the Rio Virgin, an affluent of the Colorado river in Lincoln county, cover an area of 25 miles, extending to within seven miles of the junction of that stream with the Colorado. The salt they contain is pure and white and clear as crystal, and it is said that a piece seven or eight inches thick is sometimes clear enough to see through to read a newspaper. Over the salt is a layer of sandstone from two to eight feet thick, and when this is torn away the salt appears like a huge snowdrift. It has not yet been ascertained, but a single blast of giant powder will blow out tons of it. Under the cap-rock have been discovered charred wood and charcoal and matting made of cedar bark, which the salt has preserved, evidently the camp of prehistoric men.

First National Bank.

The Board of Directors met yesterday and declared the usual six per cent. dividend for the past six months and carried forward undivided profits amounting to $11,856.22. At the annual meeting of the stockholders there was represented 1,680 shares out of 2,000. The Board of Directors was increased to seven members and Messrs. Allen A. Curtis and Frank M. Lee added to the Board all the old members being reelected. The officers of the bank are the same as formerly:

By a reference to to-day's Washington dispatches it will be seen that H. P. Kraus's nomination for Postmaster at Reno has gone to the Senate.

Passengers on to-day's east-bound train said that between the iron bridge and Verdi the snow was flying so thickly that objects 50 yards away could not be distinguished.

Congressional Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—In the House, after a personal explanation by Hitt of Illinois as to his relations towards the oleomargarine tax, he having been charged by the National Butter and Egg Association with an attempt to get it revoked, the House resumed the consideration of the report of the special committee to investigate the Silcott defalcation.

After some petitions had been presented, Sherman introduced a bill to provide for a permanent national bank circulation. Referred.

Chandler offered a resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Contingent Expenses, instructing the Committee on Immigration to investigate the various laws of the United States and of the several States relating to immigration, and also to investigate the workings of the contracts made by the Secretary of the Treasury. The Senate then took up Morgan's resolution recognizing the United States of Brazil as a free, independent and sovereign State, and Turpie spoke in support of it.

The President to-day sent to the Senate the following nominations: Postmasters—H. P. Kraus, at Reno; S. Metzler, at Worcester, Or.; J. H. D. Gray, at Astoria, Or.; H. McCutcheon, at San Diego, Cal.; E. E. Rupert, at Wardner, Idaho.

The Policy Defined.

By Cable and Associated Press.
ROME, Jan. 15.—The Pope has issued an encyclical which sets forth the principles which shall guide Catholics in their relations toward the State, and which, the encyclical says, they must obey when such a course does not entail disobedience of the divine laws. In countries where the State opposes Catholicism, Catholics must combat the enemy, but must not tie the churches to any political party.

Home-Crooked Developments.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—An order was issued by the Federal Court requiring the officers of the Meade-Van Bokkelen Company to submit to an examination before a Master in Chancery. The order grows out of a discovery made by Receiver Parker, who alleges that B. O. Van Bokkelen, the senior member of the firm, lost $100,000 of the firm's money on the Board of Trade. The Meade-Van Bokkelen Company dealt largely in California fruits and wines, and failed a month ago. The liabilities of the company were $300,000, of which claims to the amount of $185,000 were unsecured, and the assets were only $70,000.

In the course of the examination of the books it was shown that payments of between $30,000 and $40,000, credited to merchandise and bills payable, were really payments by Van Bokkelen to L. O. Lee, to be used in speculation on the Board of Trade. The Receiver reports that he knows $30,000 went into the Board, and he believes on a further investigation it will be proved that upwards of $100,000 were lost there.

The receiver also found an item of $20,000 credited to bills receivable, which, it was explained, was the amount due from saloon-keepers for a certain brand of champagne, in the booming of which Findlay & Co. of New York are said to have spent $100,000 in the West, and the Meade-Van Bokkelen Company was a party to the enterprise. Though $20,000 is said to be due from saloon-keepers, the Board can only show the sales of $4,000 worth. The receiver further charges the firm with distributing a large amount of goods from the warehouse, and that there are no receipts or anything else to show for such storage. It is also charged that goods known to be consigned goods were used by the firm to raise borrowed money which the members appropriated to their own use.

Three Chapters that Contain a Sequel.

There are three chapters in the Family Physician which are of special mention, namely, those on "Diseases of Women," "Cases of Infants," and "Care of the Sick."

The first of these is a model of its kind. It is chaste in language, contains no disgusting pictures for children to happen on and be over-urged by, and is taken altogether the most practical, sensible, and straight forward treatise upon this delicate subject that has ever been printed.

This chapter alone is worth many times the cost of the book to every mother even if it had to be purchased at its regular price. The other chapters referred to are equally well written and valuable. See "Our Plan" on 4th page.

The End of the Sharon-Hill Divorce Case.

Indefinitely Postponed.

Special to the GAZETTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—Judge Shafter in the Superior Court rendered a decision in the Sharon case this morning which virtually ends that famous litigation. The judgment was on a motion to dismiss the answer and the demurrer to the answer; both motions were overruled by the Court. The principal point in the present controversy was on the demurrer to the answer made by the Sharon heirs. In the latter document they incorporated the decree of the United States Circuit Court by which it was alleged that the marriage contract was declared a forgery and ordered cancelled. Judge Shafter held that the decree was in force in all the Courts and that the contract has no legal existence. He ordered the Sharon case postponed indefinitely.

Charged With Unfairness.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The case of the Earl of Euston against Parke, editor of the North London Press, for criminal libel in charging the Earl with being implicated in the West End scandal, came up for trial in the old Bailey to-day. Sir Charles Russell, counsel for the Earl of Euston, who opened the case, said he would prove that Parke had published a libel. Lockwood, for the defense, in reply censured Sir Charles for withholding the Earl of Euston from a cross-examination at the preliminary hearing until the evidence for the defense had been given.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—At 1 o'clock this morning the police arrested seventy persons who were parading the streets and shouting "Down with England."

Waked Up Effectually.

By Associated Press.

A lethargic, dormant condition of the liver is hardly to be overcome with drastic cathartics and nauseous cholagogues. A gentler, pleasanter and far more effective means exists of arousing the organ when somnolent. This is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, vouchsafed for by the medical fraternity, tested by the public for many years. A resumption by the biliary organs of its secretory function, with the activity attendant upon health, a return to regularity of the bowels, and a renewal of digestion, are the no less happy and certain results of using the Bitters systematically. Its laxative effect is never painful and drenching, its tendency being rather to perpetuate regularity than to produce a spasmodic action. Malaria, nervousness, debility, kidney troubles and neuralgia it subdues effectually.

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. 17

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

New Industrial Era.

Eighteen years ago a commission was appointed in Great Britain to investigate the question of the probable duration of the coal supply of the kingdom. Some of the results of this official inquiry, given in a paper read before the Statistical Society, suggests some startling probabilities. At the average rate of increase and consumption which has been going on for the past twenty years it is computed that the Newcastle coal district will be exhausted in 94 years, the South Wales district in 79 years, and the remainder in even less time.

The Electrical Engineer says: Nothing in the future appears more probable than that within the lifetime of persons now living the industrial supremacy of Great Britain will pass away with the exhaustion of her coal fields. Switzerland, Italy and the Scandinavian peninsula are destined to become the great manufacturing districts of Europe. This extraordinary industrial revolution will be brought about by the transmission and distribution, by electrical means, of the inexhaustible and permanent water power which is now running to waste in those countries. Indeed, this power is already beginning to be successfully utilized by the skill of the electrical engineer. More than a year ago we visited in Switzerland a woolen manufactory of 36,000 spindles, with the usual complement of auxiliary machinery, which was operated wholly by electric power conveyed from a distant stream, deriving its never-failing supply of water from the melting of Alpine snows. To an electrician the sight was an inspiring one and full of significance. In the new era which is advancing with such rapid strides, the Swiss republic may not improbably become the foremost industrial nation of Europe. Nothing is more certain than that the next quarter century will witness amazing changes in the commercial relations of the nations of the earth, in consequence of the development of the conception of the electrical distribution of energy.

THE execution last month of a man for murder in Andalusia, Spain, twenty-four hours after a reprieve had been actually signed by the Queen and forwarded, has occasioned so much excitement in Spain that the Government has drawn up a bill to give to a telegraphic message in such cases the force of a formal written order. In this case the authorities, charged with the execution were notified by telegraph that the reprieve had been signed and was then on its way, but they insisted that they were powerless to delay the execution in the absence of formal documents.

THE French Government seems determined to make the "pleasant land of France" as unpleasant a land as possible for foreigners to live in. An order has been issued by the Minister of the Interior with a view to rendering still more stringent the existing regulations about the residence of foreigners. According to this a foreigner domiciled in France will now have to go through the whole elaborate business of reporting himself to the police every time he wishes to move into another commune or department.

SPEAKER REED has a few peculiar habits. He is a strong believer in the restful mental effects of good fiction. He always carries a novel in his pocket and in moments of leisure reads a few pages. He finds that he is thus enabled to overcome the weariness of mind which his exacting duties beget.

A MANSION FOR SALE.

"Nob Hill" to be described by the Aristocracy.
The San Francisco Report says: The Flood mansion stands on the summit of Nob Hill, virtually deserted. The Flood family does not intend to inhabit it again and it is very unlikely that any other family will ever desire it. It is a very fine mansion, but it is not the kind of house that our millionaires like to live in nowadays. It occupies a commanding position, but the glory of Nob Hill has departed. No one will ever build or buy another "palatial residence" on Nob Hill. The summit of Nob Hill is now the aristocratic quarter, par excellence, and will steadily be less aristocratic. The drift is westward. The Flood mansion is for sale.

"THE PRINCESS."

The Argument of the Play for the Memo Library.

The readers of the GAZETTE who expect to go see and hear "The Princess"—and this should include every reader, as it is well worth seeing—will be pleased to have the following argument of the drama. Preserve this and take it with you to the play on Friday evening:

Act I. The Princess refuses to wed the Prince, having determined to give her life to the intellectual uplifting of her sex. The Prince and his two friends, Cyril and Florian, determine to don girls' attire and enroll in the University she has established, although no man may enter its precincts on pain of death. Empowered with letters from the Princess' father, they pass approved the border sentries and are admitted to the palace. Lady Psyche, Florian's sister, recognizes him in his disguise, and Melissa overhears their conversation, but both are persuaded to keep silent until they slip away.

Act II. They are warned that Lady Psyche has discovered them and Cyril undertakes to silence her. The Prince urges his suit with the Princess.

Act III. Cyril discovers himself to the Princess and her maidens. In the fight which ensues the Princess falls into a stream and the Prince saves her life. Cyril and Lady Psyche escape to the King's camp. The Prince and Florian are made captive by proctors and are taken before the Princess. Letters inform her that the University is surrounded by the King's army, and that her father is held hostage for the Prince's life. She quiets a panic among the students, dismisses Lady Psyche, who can not leave the palace, and causes the Prince and Florian to be thrust out of the gates.

Act IV. Psyche is full of remorse and shame at the part she has played and grief at the loss of her child. The Princess sending word that she will abide the issue, war is determined upon, her brothers championing her cause.

Act V. The Prince is defeated and maimed in battle. Psyche repines her child and the forgiveness of the Princess. The University is opened for the wounded of friend or foe. Lady Psyche is finally dismissed. The Princess saves the life of the Prince by weary weeks of watching, and receives as a helper in her plans one who knows "that woman's cause is man's: they rise or sink together, dwarfed or god-like, bond or free."

Finale: "Ask me no more."

A TROTTER DOG.

An Irish Setter That Can Trot a Mile Close to Three Minutes.

The Toronto Globe publishes the following interesting account of an Irish setter: The best known Irish setter in Canada is Doc, whose sphere of usefulness is not in the fields with his master in pursuit of game, but on the trotting track. Doc is about three years old, and his public performances in charge of his youthful driver, Willie Ketchum, have given him almost a continental reputation. He was born in Brighton, Ont., early in the year 1886, and has been in the trotting business since he was a puppy. M. P. Ketchum, Willie's father, trained the dog to harness for the amusement of the boy, but Doc developed so much speed at the trotting gait that exhibitions were given at several fairs in the neighborhood of Brighton. They were very successful, and this year, dog and driver have given exhibitions as far away from home as Brandon, Manitoba, and Kansas City. On a good track such as bicyclists use Doc can draw Willie Ketchum and the sulky and trot a mile pretty close to three minutes. No twelve-hands pony has yet been met that can out-trot him, and he is a breeder for his owner. Fair associations pay large amounts for this attraction, and Doc earns quite as much as a fast horse. He eats no oats or hay, requires no rubber nor expensive driver, travels in a baggage car and is always in trim to go out and trot. An agent of Barnum offered a big price for him, but Mr. Ketchum thought the dog could earn as much for him as for the great showman, and refused to part with him. Doc weighs a little over 50 pounds, and in his exhibitions draws a 28-pound sulky and a driver about his own weight. Mr. Ketchum's offer to trot him for any amount against any horse, large or small, that draws a proportionate weight, is not so good for the horse as it looks. Doc pulls over one and a half times his own weight. Maud S., in a contest under these conditions, would have to draw not far from a ton, and the dog would beat her in such a match.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes digestion, relieves headache, clears the mind, and cures dyspepsia.

In a Terrible Condition. "I owe my life to Hood's Sarsaparilla. For two years I was in a terrible condition with dyspepsia. I could eat nothing but soda crackers, and my weight fell from 170 to 133 pounds. Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me at once, and after using 12 bottles I was entirely cured. I have gained my usual weight, 170 pounds, and have had excellent health ever since." T. J. WILCOX, 20-26 1st South Street, Salt Lake City Utah.

Headache—Hot Flashes.

"I had headache, hot flashes, soreness and swelling across my body, pain in my right side, with frequent vomiting. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla with the best results. I am in better health than for four years. Hood's Sarsaparilla is safe, reliable, and sure." J. C. WILLSON, Auburn, Cal.

JOTTINGS.

C. J. Brookins carries a full line of both pen and pencil writing tablets, and note and legal-cap paper.

George Becker's Granite saloon is where you will always find a good beer and both Pacific and Fredericksburg beer.

Ladies in want of a neat and stylish Winter hat or bonnet should not fail to examine Miss Emma Gibb's stock and prices.

By taking your meals at the Riverside Hotel you can always know that you are getting the best to be had for coin.

Everything in the line of stationery, blank books, pens, pencils, inks, musicals and errands at C. A. Thurston's news depot.

At J. J. Becker's Chicago saloon can be had a glass of Boca or Sacramento beer and a nice hot lunch neatly served for 12 1/2 cents.

Anything you want in the grocery line can be had at Landthaler's. He has now on hand some very fine oranges and dates. Try them.

No one is ever known to leave the Arcade Hotel dissatisfied, for Lemery's meals cannot be excelled and his prices place the best within the reach of all.

Those in want of the best family groceries should not fail to examine J. N. Wallace's stock and prices, for he is determined not to be undersold by anybody.

Knight of Honor.

Nevada Lodge, No. 3,020, K. of H., last evening installed their officers for the ensuing year, as follows: N. C. Hamersmith, D.; James Bradshaw, V. D.; S. A. Hamlin, V. D.; George Becker, T.; T. V. Julien, R.; S. Emrich, E. R.; S. Upson, G.; Morris Ash, C.; J. M. Higgins, I. G.; S. Jacobs, O. G.

The reports of the retiring officers show the lodge to be in a flourishing condition.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at W. Finner's Drug Store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

No Particular Office Hours.

A paragraph is going the rounds about a girl dying from tight lacing. An editor commenting on the fact says: These corsets should be done away with, and if the girls can't live without being squeezed we suppose men can be found who would sacrifice themselves. As to ourselves we would rather wear loose hours a day without a farthing of pay as a breast corset, than to see these girls dying in this manner. Office hours almost any time.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble. I feel better, farmer and stockman of same place, says: "Find the Electric Bitter to be the best Liver and Kidney medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt, just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at Wm. Finner's drug store."

A Pair of Them.

The Arkansas Traveler says: The hour was late. A wan stood at a desk looking over an enormous book. A rough-looking fellow stepped into the room, and drawing a pistol, said: "Keep quiet." "I am quiet," the man answered, without showing the faintest sign of emotion. "All right; remain that way! I'm a robber!" "So am I," the man answered. "What you a robber?" "Yes; I have been appointed receiver for this company." "Oh; is that a fact? In that case I must leave you. I never beat a man out of his job."

The Best There Is.

A new typewriter has been invented by the party who invented half of the Remington and all of the Caligraph. It has no ribbon, no wooden bars, but is all steel, prints true and without any blur. It costs an even hundred dollars, and is worth two of any other machine. It prints better, wears longer, is easier to learn and works faster, besides other recommendations. C. A. BRAGO, Agent.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, oozes, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale everywhere.

BARTINE HEARD FROM,

And His Political Adversaries Answered.

The Carson Appeal of the 14th inst., contained the following:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6, 1890.

S. P. Davis—Dear Sir: Have just returned from a week's vacation in New Jersey, my old home, and find upon my table the Appeal's reply to the Silver State, with reference to my vote for Speaker. It seems strange that there can be any possible misunderstanding as to my action. Mr. Reed is certainly under no misapprehension. He knows that I opposed him in every honorable way until the caucus decrees was rendered, and then as a Republican was bound to yield.

It has been urged that the Representatives from the silver-producing States should have refused to go into caucus and cast their votes in the House for a pronounced friend of silver. Such a course would have been political suicide. The entire representation from the distinctively silver-producing States consisted of just three—Carter of Montana, Townsend of Colorado and myself. The first was an active, determined friend of Reed, so that our aggressive force was only two. Reed's majority in the House was twelve.

You can see at a glance what our position would have been had we pursued the course suggested. Our effort would have been in vain and we would be political outcasts, absolutely powerless to do anything for our constituents.

In caucus Reed's majority was only one. Hence, we had a much better chance to defeat him there than in the House. We made the attempt and failed, but we have in no way injured our status in the party, and are now in a position to do something for our people. I am a little surprised at the suggestion that Reed has "sat down on me." He placed me on the Coinage Committee at my urgent request. I made this request because, in my simplicity, I thought that our people were slightly interested in the matter of coinage, and I regarded the appointment as a most valuable concession. It certainly puts me upon highly advantageous ground in the great battle for silver. In the present aspect of the "money" question the Coinage Committee, considered from a sectional standpoint, is second in importance only to the Committee on Ways and Means, and to us it is infinitely more important.

The committee is friendly to silver. Just how far the majority will go I can not at present foretell, but that something substantial will be done I confidently believe.

Mr. Reed has certainly tried to be fair, and it seems to me that our people ought to do justice by him. He has also placed me upon the Indian Depredations Claims Committee, which is one of considerable importance to Nevada, and if he has shown any disposition to sit down upon me my mental obtuseness has prevented me from discovering the fact. Sincerely yours, H. F. BARTINE.

ADVERTISING.

Words of Wisdom From a Successful Firm.

How to increase business with profit—that's the problem. Live business men the world over are trying to solve it. Every business man is therefore interested in any method which promises this result. Methods are almost as plenty as men. Which are worth trying? is the important question. Among the best methods is newspaper advertising, but, like many another thing, it is the difference in the word how you do it. A given sum invested in newspaper advertising may yield a handsome profit, or it may be entirely lost; how it's done decides which.

There is a right and a wrong way. To know the right way is to open the door to success.

The use of the right matter, rightly displayed, in the right newspaper, is of greater importance to an advertiser than is the cost of the paper.

To prepare the best matter, to display it to best advantage, and to select the best newspapers for each particular purpose requires knowledge that comes only with careful study and long experience.

Business men can draw their own conclusions from the above, which are the words of a firm that has made millions of dollars from advertising.

Genuine Case of Shoddy.

On the arrival of Senator Hearst's family at New York recently they were interviewed by a reporter of the Journal relative to their overland trip, when a daughter of the Senator gave a history of the snow-blockade at Emigrant Gap, which obliged the train on which they were traveling to lay up at Colfax and pass their time among the undesirable society of that mountain town, which is as pure a specimen of genuine shoddy as is often heard.

Cheap Dry Goods.

The auction at the Opera House Dry Goods Store seems to be the main attraction. General C. W. Booten's lot is bound to sell the larger portion of his present stock regardless of cost. This is the largest stock of dry goods ever sold in one city at auction, and we have been told that the goods are being sold at one-half their retail price. General Booten says he has at least $20,000 worth yet to sell, which will keep the auction going until March 1st.

Water Running to Waste.

Hon. T. B. Riekey says that this year there will be water enough running to waste to irrigate all the land along Walker river—land enough to support 30,000 people. It is a great pity it cannot be stored and put to good use.

Titles Going Up.

The Tuscarora Times says: "The way these monarchies are being swept from the face of the earth brings a tear to the eye of the American heiress. What will become of the surplus when there are no more titles to buy?"

A Large Crowd.

The crowd at the auction store yesterday reminds us of a camp meeting, judging from the number of tents that were pitched around the Opera House Dry Goods Store.

HIGHEST AWARD IN OUR CLASS!

WE LEAD THEM ALL!

Bronze Medal! Bronze Medal!

There is no proprietary medicine in the world that has grown into popularity and favor in so short a period of time as the remedy known as THE GREAT SIERRA KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE. The Sierra Chemical Co., manufacturers of these valuable goods is composed of bright, active Californians, of thorough and long experience in their line of business. They have shown wonderful enterprise in bringing before the public a purely vegetable compound, the chief ingredients of which are composed of herbs gathered on the sides and in the canons of the noted Sierra range of mountains, from which this remedy takes its name. At the MECHANICS' EXHIBITION, 1889, this company were awarded the highest premium given to medicines—A BRONZE MEDAL. The committee that pronounced this verdict was composed of the two leading analytical professors on this coast, viz: Professors RISING and WENTZEL. This goes to prove its superiority over all other preparations. Delightful to the taste and as a positive cure for all Kidney, Liver and Bladder troubles it has no equal on earth.

All druggists sell these valuable goods.

HE TOOK THE WRONG MEDICINE.

Robert Stewart, of Petaluma, recently had a queer experience. He writes: "Carcuncles and boils afflicted my face and neck for weeks. Finally I procured a bottle of one of the leading sarsaparillas. To my surprise it made matters worse. This made me lose faith in sarsaparillas, but seeing a statement that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla dried up boils and face eruptions instead of forcing more out as the putrid sarsaparillas do, I bought a bottle. The effect was astonishing. The caruncles and boils began to dry up, and in two weeks my face was as well and smooth as ever. My brother also took a bottle with the same benefit. ROBERT STEWART, Petaluma, Cal."

Explanatory Note: The mineral iodide of potash, which is the basis of nearly all other sarsaparillas, attacks the blood directly, hence forces impurities through the skin, creating more boils and pimples. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla acts oppositely. Its vegetable constituents stimulate the various secretory organs and thus eliminate all impurities through the natural channels, causing the skin to break out in eruptions at once. The above testimonial is a case in point.
